1. At the Radio Station at Velky Radvan (elevation point 547) near the village of Domamily (058/R78) large machines have been installed in underground chambers. The purpose of these machines is not known. The underground chambers are built in three underground stories.
2. Near the building is a steel mast 65 meters high. Its top is usually lit up at night.
3. Guards at this station are elderly post-office employees.
4. On the night of 28 to 29 September 1953 a truck loaded with electric equipment of the size of an ordinary cupboard was observed entering the building. The equipment was placed in an underground chamber. No information on the use or make of these machines is available.
